INTRODUCTION FROM ANDREA YOUNG (CFA)

Head of Investment, Old College Capital

C Thank you for your interest in the Investment Manager role. There has never been a better time to join our supportive team as we embark on Old College Capital's next stage of growth."

Old College Capital (OCC) is the University of Edinburgh's venture investment fund and is part of Edinburgh Innovations, the University's commercialisation service. OCC manages Edinburgh's early- stage investment activities and shareholdings and supports the most exciting ideas and technologies emerging from the University.

Since starting as a pilot project back in 2011, OCC has been on a remarkable journey. From making just a few investments a year, the team now support over 75 transactions annually. We have a thriving portfolio with assets under management of £50m, and we have ambitions to significantly scale our activity.

On the back of recent success, we are expanding and consolidating our activities under OCC, focusing on four key areas – launch, ventures, equity and strategic.

We are looking for candidates who share our passion for early-stage businesses investment and technology to join our growing team. We are a fast-paced, collaborative and supportive team and are looking for dynamic, professional and driven candidates who want to help us shape our next phase of growth. If you think that's you, we would love to hear from you.

OUR MISSION, VALUES AND TEAM

OUR MISSION

COURT

Working with founders, investors and the ecosystem, we aim to accelerate the journey of our startups and spinouts to make a positive impact on people and the planet.

OUR VALUES

We are:

- Inclusive and supportive
- Open and collaborative
- Knowledgeable and accountable
- Driven by positive impact

OUR TEAM

We are an ambitious and energetic team, passionate about helping get ideas from Edinburgh's staff, students and research out into the world where they can make a difference. Our goal is to do the best we can for our diverse portfolio and to help more high impact ideas and founders fulfil their potential.

Since joining OCC, I look forward to work every morning. The variety of our work, the people, ideas and the companies we are exposed to means every day is both stimulating and different. It's a privilege to work with, and learn from, world leading academics, talented students and leading venture investors.

Our position in the ecosystem provides unrivalled insight into the real-life experience of startups from idea/pre-seed investment through to scaling/venture rounds and acquisition. It's rewarding to be part of these journeys and a fantastic development opportunity to see how different approaches can work."

Simon Durrant (CA), Investment Director, Old College Capital

If you are interested in early-stage investment, OCC presents an opportunity to become part of the startup community in Scotland as part of a high performing team.

It's been a pleasure to support Andrea, Simon and the Old College Capital team as we have scaled OCC from a small proof-of-concept seed fund, into a specialist deep-tech venture fund.

I am continually impressed by the quality of the OCC team's analysis, the determination of the founders who present to us and the important challenges they are working to address.

OCC has a special culture, being curious, passionate and ambitious about early-stage businesses whilst maintaining pragmatism, judgement and conviction in our investment decisions.

I am proud of what has been built at OCC and of our portfolio of companies, who continue to work on solutions to society's biggest problems whilst also supporting high-tech, impactful and rewarding career opportunities in Edinburgh and beyond."

Hamish Mair, Chair of Old College Capital's Investment Committee
